Cayambis Music Press Signs Argentine Composer to Five Year Contract

Music Publisher Increases Its Latin American Sheet Music Catalog

Blacksburg, VA: Today, Cayambis Music Press, a music publishing company specializing in classical sheet music from Latin America, is pleased to announce that Argentine composer Adriana Verdié has joined its growing group of international composers. Verdié, who is a faculty member at California State University, Long Beach, holds a Ph.D. in composition from the University of California, Berkeley. She also holds degrees from the University of Cuyo in Argentina. Her music, which has been performed in the United States, Canada and Argentina, has received numerous honors and awards.

“When we first received Adriana’s music for our consideration we were immediately impressed by its high quality and appeal. Her works will find a natural home in our catalog of Latin American sheet music.”

Adriana brings a number of compositions to the Cayambis Music Press catalog, including some quite attractive works for woodwind and brass ensembles. Adriana said, “I am very happy to be involved with an editorial company that is so committed to the success of Latin American composers.”
