Cayambis Music Press Inks Agreement in Support of Music Sorority
Music Publisher to Implement Beneficial Plan for Students

Blacksburg, VA: Today, Cayambis Music Press, a music publishing company specializing in sheet music by Latin America composers, is pleased to announce its partnership with Tau Beta Sigma, the national honorary band sorority dedicated to serving college band programs. This agreement is intended to benefit the music sorority on two levels, first, individual sorority members will have access to the company's many publications at a substantial discount, and second, at the end of the academic school year Cayambis Music Press will make a donation to the local Tau Beta Sigma chapter whose members have purchased the most music.

"I am happy to be able to establish such a key relationship with young musicians who are already making valuable contributions to the profession."

Katharine Hale, president of the Zeta Omicron chapter of Tau Beta Sigma at Virginia Tech, said, "Being a student these days means spending a lot of money on books and music. I'm glad that our sorority sisters and myself will be able to obtain Cayambis's unique editions and save some money, too."

John Walker, owner of Cayambis Music Press, said, "I am happy to be able to establish such a key relationship with young musicians who are already making valuable contributions to the profession."
